

Amy's Book Club

1. Event Theme

The theme of this book club meeting is "Exploring the Light of Humanity—Life Philosophy in Classic Literature".

The book club will focus on discussing the character development, plot progression, and life philosophies reflected in classic literary works. We will analyze the wisdom and insights presented in these books and engage in group discussions to help each participant gain inspiration and a deeper understanding of themselves and the world.

2. Participation Guidelines

1. Event Time: The book club will meet on the second Saturday of each month, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM.
2. Eligibility: Anyone interested in reading and discussing literary works is welcome to join.
3. Preparation: Participants are required to complete the assigned reading before the meeting and prepare at least two questions or observations to share during the discussion.
4. Punctuality: To ensure smooth discussions, participants are expected to arrive on time. If you cannot attend, please notify the organizers in advance.
5. Respect for Others: During discussions, please respect everyone's opinions, maintain an open and inclusive attitude, and avoid interrupting others.
6. Active Participation: Participants are encouraged to actively share their thoughts, offer insights, and engage in discussions, welcoming diverse viewpoints.
7. Pandemic Precautions: If there are special circumstances, such as a pandemic, the organizers will decide whether to switch to an online format depending on the situation at the time.

3. Number of Participants

The maximum number of participants for each book club meeting is 15 people. To ensure the quality of the discussions, each meeting will be conducted in small groups, with a facilitator leading the conversation. If the number of registrations exceeds this limit, participants will be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis.

4. Special Notes

1. Book Selection: The books for each meeting will be chosen based on the results of a vote, and participants will be notified a month in advance. The book list will include classic literature, modern novels, essays, and a variety of other genres.
2. Venue: The book club will be held at a cafe or library in the city center to ensure a quiet and comfortable environment for discussions. The exact venue will be announced a week before each event.
3. Recording and Sharing: The meeting will be recorded (audio or video) and summarized into a book review report. The report will be shared in the WeChat or email group after the meeting.
4. Follow-up Activities: We will periodically organize online sharing sessions, author talks, and other activities to provide more learning and exchange opportunities. We encourage active participation.
5. Fee Information: Each participant is required to pay a fee for venue rental and refreshments, approximately NT$200 per person. The exact amount will depend on the venue, and participants will be informed in advance.

5. Contact Information

For any questions or registration inquiries, please contact:

- Email: bookclub@example.com
- Phone: +886-912-345-678